WELCOME HOME TO GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA

GADC
Greenville Area Development Corporation

Downtown Greenville, SC | Falls Park

YOU WON'T FIND A MORE HOSPITABLE OR BUSINESS-FRIENDLY CLIMATE THAN SOUTH CAROLINA

South Carolina has a reputation as a superior business location. That's not just our opinion. Area Development magazine consistently ranks South Carolina as one of the top five states to do business in the nation. We are proud to offer a good value equation to all businesses—enterprise or entrepreneurial. South Carolina continues to experience significant growth in economic development. Since 2011, the Palmetto State has outpaced bordering states in manufacturing job growth. Companies - large and small, new or existing - are finding the Palmetto State has unparalleled value, and it is just right for business.

Incentives and Taxes

South Carolina has an exceptional economic climate that helps companies hold down operating costs and increase their return on investment. In addition, South Carolina's performance-based tax incentives reward companies for job creation and investment.

View our incentives and taxes

Student at the Greenville Technical College's Center for Manufacturing Innovation

Innovation

From founders to executives to researchers, South Carolinians are developing life-changing technologies and products every day. South Carolina mobilizes the dynamic flow of resources and information among people, industries and institutions for the prosperity of our citizens. Elevating and connecting the state's people-driven ecosystem is at the forefront to ensuring global competitiveness and driving future economic growth. The innovation team at SC Commerce embraces a risk-taking culture as we identify, prioritize, develop and launch new assets to support South Carolina's business community in their relentless pursuits of transformational ideas.

View innovation initiatives

Infrastructure

Though coastal and temperate, South Carolina is just a two days' drive from nearly 208 million Americans—that's two-thirds of the US population. That number includes all major East Coast markets, plus Detroit, Chicago and Dallas.

Inland Port Greer in Upstate South Carolina

Inland Port Greer is a rail-served inland port facility in Upstate South Carolina. Owned and operated by SC Ports, Inland Port Greer extends the Port of Charleston's reach 212 miles inland via rail to ensure the swift movement of goods for customers. Inland Port Greer has 24/7 gates and next-day availability of containers, 6 days per week. Inland Port Greer gives you unprecedented flexibility and control, which works for manufacturers running tight production lines and retailers in need of velocity and reliability in their supply chain.

Explore infrastructure maps

Workforce

We're ranked highly for low labor costs and workforce development programs by Area Development magazine. With low corporate tax rates and competitive wages, SC's job market has consistently outpaced national growth levels. Twelve Regional Workforce Advisors focus on ensuring that South Carolina's workforce continues to be one of the best in the nation. At a time when South Carolina's economy is developing at historic rates, the Regional Workforce Advisors are the state's resource for creating a workforce of the future. These advisors are our go-to team, bridging gaps at the local level between those who educate our students and those in the business community who rely on a talented labor pool.

View workforce development programs

Training and Education

More than 160,000 students are enrolled, on a full-time basis, in the state's public and private learning institutions.

Workforce Training with readySC™

For more than 50 years, the SC Technical College System has powered readySC™ which provides well-trained employees to companies investing in South Carolina. The readySC™ program includes recruiting, screening and training as well as a tailored curriculum to fit a company's specific needs.

Workforce Training and Education

The South Carolina Technical College System

The South Carolina Technical College System is comprised of 16 community-based technical colleges throughout the state. Home to the readySCTM program, the SC Technical College System serves more than 160,000 students and excels at creating programs that meet the needs of area businesses and industries.

Explore our education system

GREENVILLE, SC

Finding an abundance of streams and rivers, textile manufacturers began operating in Upstate South Carolina in the 1820s. From those early days, Greenville County has gradually transformed from the textile capital of the world into an office, engineering and advanced manufacturing center of excellence. As South Carolina's most populous county, Greenville is situated in the northwestern corner of the state and is part of one of the nation's fastest growing areas, "The I-85 Mega-Growth Corridor." Located on I-85 between Charlotte, NC and Atlanta, GA, Greenville is just 200 miles via I-26 to the Atlantic Ocean and the Port of Charleston. To the northwest and just 30 minutes away are the Blue Ridge mountains. Access to the rest of the U.S. is made easy by the Greenville-Spartanburg International Airport, recognized as one of the most user friendly airports. With a unique blend of southern traditions and international influences, gentle rolling hills and beautiful, majestic mountains, Greenville County is just the right mix for a great place to live, work and play.

QUALITY OF LIFE

As a warm southern community with a diverse economy and an abundance of amenities, it is no wonder that Greenville, SC is consistently ranked one of the nation's top places to do business and best places to live. Greenville is a mid-sized metro area with a low cost of living, mild climate, exceptional healthcare, award-winning school system, and an overall quality of life that is unmatched. Located along I-85 midway between Atlanta, Georgia and Charlotte, North Carolina, Greenville offers the appeal of a big city with small-town hospitality that is hard to find elsewhere.

Pomegranate on Main

Culture, Entertainment, & Recreation

Greenville is a hub for culture and entertainment. Greenville County, South Carolina, is a flourishing community with five municipalities, each replete with its own distinct attributes and vibrant appeal. Beautifully nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Greenville is the midway point between Atlanta and Charlotte and boasts shops, galleries, restaurants, and outdoor parks, trails, and green spaces just pulsing with life. Greenville offers an enormous variety of arenas, museums, theaters, and performing arts centers. Whether you love art, music, theater, or sports, there's something to satisfy even the most discriminating taste. Greenville is also home to a slew of Fortune 500 enterprises, in addition to hundreds of thriving smaller companies, and is considered a significant economic hub for the entire Southeast region of the United States.

For more information on quality of life in Greenville, please visit VisitGreenvilleSC.com and MoveUpstateSC.com.

Greenville County Schools

Greenville County Schools was awarded district-wide National Accreditation from the AdvancED Accreditation Commission, recognizing it as a high quality school district. The District is a State leader in school choice, featuring schools of various sizes in urban, suburban and rural settings, and magnet academies offering specialized studies in areas such as communications arts, languages, the arts, and science and mathematics. In 2021, the student population was just over 76,600 students, making it one of the top 50 largest school districts in the U.S. The 2021 graduation rate was 84%, or 5,263 students.

However, what truly sets Greenville County Schools apart nationally, is its Graduation Plus program designed to ensure graduates are college or career ready. In 2021, graduates earned over 6,000 dual-credit hours and over 6,200 Industry Certifications.

To view other key statistics, please visit Greenville County Schools

Cost of Living

The Council for Community and Economic Research's (C2ER), Q4 2022 Cost of Living Index reported Greenville, SC with a Composite Index score of 90.7. When compared with the average cost of living for the U.S. (100.0), Greenville's cost of living is 9.3% lower.

Market	Composite	Groceries	Housing	Utilities	Transportation	Healthcare	Misc. Goods
Greenville, SC	90.7	98.8	71.3	97.0	90.7	98.0	100.3
Atlanta, GA	101.6	92.6	107.3	85.5	102.8	107.4	104.3
Charlotte, NC	97.9	97.5	88.7	91.2	93.6	113.1	106.5
Dallas, TX	102.5	95.4	96.3	113.8	85.7	113.1	110.8
Tampa, FL	99.8	108.2	96.5	97.0	100.4	92.6	100.4

Source: C2ER Q4 2022

Interpreting the Index: The Cost of Living Index measures relative price levels for consumer goods and services in participating areas. The average for all participating places, both metropolitan and non-metropolitan, equals 100, and each participant's index is read as a percentage of the average for all places.

Greenville Triumph Stadium

OUR COMMUNITIES

The City of Greenville

The beautiful city of Greenville boasts a world-class business community, a thriving arts scene, an abundance of natural amenities, and an unparalleled quality of life in one of the nation's best places to live and do business. Greenville is a mid-sized city that offers both a small-town feel and the amenities of a much larger city. Greenville's 500 acres of parkland, a collection of unique boutiques and restaurants alongside major sports and entertainment arenas deliver limitless recreation opportunities to residents and visitors.

VisitGreenvilleSC

Fountain Inn

This tightly-knit community offers a relaxed quality of life that has drawn diverse new developments. Fountain Inn's quaint downtown area is home to several restaurants, shops, and entertainment venues. The city has recently expanded programming at the Fountain Inn Civic Center, welcomed the Art Haven School of the Arts and several new businesses. Fountain Inn also boasts multiple green spaces that include sports fields, walking trails, and playgrounds.
City of Fountain Inn

Greer

In the heart of Upstate, South Carolina is Greer, home to the Greenville-Spartanburg International Airport, BMW's only United States manufacturing facility, and the South Carolina Inland Port. The City of Greer has invested heavily in green spaces in the last few years, resulting in multiple fields, trails, parks, and playgrounds sprinkled throughout the community. Additionally, Greer's downtown area offers local restaurants, boutiques and a charm that's all its own.
City of Greer

Falls Park | Downtown Greenville

Gather Greenville

Mauldin

Mauldin is a progressive community conveniently located near both I-85 and I-385, Mauldin has experienced significant growth and development, in both commercial and residential spaces. Mauldin celebrates a diverse and growing community and is home to a number of parks, green spaces, walking and biking trails, including the renowned Swamp Rabbit Trail. Mauldin hosts many community events including a farmer's market, outdoor concerts, and holiday celebrations, as well as, the Mauldin Cultural Center which hosts numerous events including art shows, concerts, and theatrical performances.
City of Mauldin

Simpsonville

The growing community of Simpsonville, SC, is consistently named one of the best towns for families and one of the most affordable. Simpsonville is experiencing a development surge in both residential and business communities and is home to multiple parks, including Heritage Park, which hosts a slew of running and biking races throughout the year. The Charter Spectrum Amphitheatre is a premier outdoor entertainment venue conveniently located in the heart of Upstate South Carolina. From Darius Rucker to Mumford & Sons, each year, the Amphitheatre welcomes some of the most sought-after award-winning musicians in America. This lovely city offers a strong sense of community and an unparalleled quality of life.
www.simpsonville.com

Travelers Rest

Located in northern Greenville County, Travelers Rest is home to myriad activities geared for an active lifestyle. Following a significant downtown revitalization, Travelers Rest has added improvements to make the city even more appealing. Trailblazer Park is the regions newest performing arts and cultural center featuring panoramic mountain views, a covered pavilion that hosts the Travelers Rest Farmers Market, festival grounds, and an open-air amphitheater. Cyclists and pedestrians can access Trailblazer Park via a spur trail connection to the Swamp Rabbit Trail, a multi-use greenway system that runs along the Reedy River connecting the City of Greenville and Travelers Rest.
Travelersrestsc.com

TRANSPORTATION INFRASTRUCTURE

Greenville-Spartanburg International Airport

The Greenville-Spartanburg Airport District is an economic engine for the Upstate of South Carolina and a vital partner for industries across the southeast. With business opportunities including cargo, real estate, general aviation, and more, the sky's the limit at GSP.

The Airport is served by 7 airlines and has direct flights to 20 domestic cities. The airport's commercial traffic averages 100 flights a day, moving 2.6 million passengers a year. The Greenville-Spartanburg Airport District is an economic engine for the Upstate of South Carolina and a vital partner for industries across the southeast. GSP's cargo service sees 30-35 flights a week and moved 96,800 tons of cargo in 2021. GSP's cargo service is continuously growing as they recently celebrated the opening of a 50,000 square foot expansion to their cargo building.

Distance to Nearby Airports from Downtown Grenville
Charlotte Douglas International Airport | 97 miles
Hartsfield - Jackson Atlanta International Airport | 155 miles
Charleston International Airport | 205 miles

Interstates

Upstate of South Carolina has over 14,000 miles of state and county-maintained highways. Some of the major interstate systems include:

Interstate I-85
Considered the backbone of the manufacturing region, I-85 passes thru the Upstate, stretches from Petersburg, VA, to Atlanta, GA, to southern Alabama, and connects the southeast with the northeast.

Interstate I-26
This interstate connects Greenville to the south, allowing access to the South Carolina ports.

Interstate I-185
Also known as the Southern Connector, I-185 is a privately developed 17-mile toll road that has opened up portions of the county that have been inaccessible for industrial development.

Port of Charleston

The Port of Charleston is comprised of six terminals, all owned and operated by the South Carolina Port Authority. Consistently ranked among the most productive ports in the world, the Port of Charleston's highly efficient operating environment and advantageous position -- deep channels close to the open ocean and major transportation hubs -- offers tremendous benefits for customers.

It all starts with deep water. At 52 feet, Charleston Harbor is home to the deepest channels in the region and regularly handles 9,000+-TEU vessels drafting up to 48 feet. Short transit times to Charleston's six marine terminals, each within two hours sailing time from the open ocean, help keep vessel schedule integrity intact and minimize the risk of canal penalties or missed berthing windows at other ports.

Once a vessel ties up at the dock, Charleston's operational team goes to work to deliver rapid and efficient crane production, averaging 36 moves per hour per crane cross the port. Furthermore, truck turn times remain 23 minutes per gate mission on average with a nine-minute average queuing time outside the interchange gates.

Inland Port Greer

Inland Port Greer is a rail-served inland port facility in Upstate South Carolina. Owned and operated by SC Ports, Inland Port Greer extends the Port of Charleston's reach 212 miles inland via rail to ensure the swift movement of goods for customers. Closer to population centers and key import/export clients, Inland Port Greer has 24/7 gates and next-day availability of containers. Import loads discharged in Charleston in the morning can be taken to the local Norfolk Southern Intermodal ramp and will be available in Greer by 8:00 the next morning, 6 days per week. Inland Port Greer gives you unprecedented flexibility and control, which works for manufacturers running tight production lines and retailers in need of velocity and reliability in their supply chain.

Greenville - Spartanburg International Airport | Cargo Facility

TALENT PIPELINE

Greenville County proudly boasts a diverse, well-educated, and skilled workforce. Employers draw workers from a wide area, including neighboring counties in Upstate South Carolina, western North Carolina, and northern Georgia. Our market has competitive wages, and as a right-to-work and employment-at-will state, South Carolina enjoys stable employer-employee relations and one of the country's lowest unionization rates.

As Greenville continues to gain recognition for its quality of life, the talent pool also continues to grow. The city regularly rates as one of the Best Places for Young Professionals (Niche), The South's Best Cities on the Rise (Southern Living), and the Best Small City in the United States (Conde Nast Traveler). Greenville and the Upstate SC Region are actively attracting new residents through initiatives of the visitor's bureau, VisitGreenvilleSC, and their Yeah, That Greenville campaign, as well as new workers through the Upstate SC Alliance's MoveUpstateSC campaign.

Education

What differentiates Greenville is the community's focus on developing the workforce of the future. With cutting-edge initiatives, particularly around STEM, our community is dedicated to developing the right skills and knowledge to help your business flourish. Our students attend schools that cater to our state's and county's target industries. Additionally, partnership programs between Greenville County Schools, Greenville Technical College, and local employers connect businesses to high school and college-aged students with a range of education and training to ensure they have real-world learning. The Upstate Region has over a dozen higher education institutions for students, including three technical schools, two community colleges, and 12 four-year universities.

Greenville County Schools

Students in Greenville County Schools can join the Career and Technology Education Program to receive certificates for career readiness in a range of categories. More information is available in the appendix.

Degree Program	Total Currently Enrolled (2021)	Graduates 2019-2021
High School Students	21,629	14,233
Career & Technical Education Program	12,613	7,366

Clemson University

Degree Program	Total Currently Enrolled (2021)	Total Graduates 2019-2021
Automotive Engineering (MS and PhD Only)	216	288
Electrical Engineering	388	331
Industrial Engineering	627	720
Materials Science and Engineering	144	173
Mechanical Engineering	968	994

Clemson University's International Center for Automotive Research (CU-ICAR), is located in Greenville County only 6 miles from the site at SCTAC. While the research at CU-ICAR is centered around the automotive industry, it is focused on systems integration and can be applied to a range of industries. For undergraduate students, Clemson University offers a Bachelors degree in Electrical Engineering, Industrial Engineering, Materials Science and Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering. All of these programs are accredited by the ABET Engineering Accreditation Commission. Beyond the classroom, Clemson University offers students experience in the field through Co-ops and internships by partnering with local companies.

Greenville Technical College's Center for Manufacturing Innovation

Additionally, Clemson University offers a Masters or a PhD in many of their engineering programs. Professors and research engineers at Clemson University and CU-ICAR support industry and federal research in the aerospace sector, collaborating on strategic research projects with the US Air Force Research Lab, the US Army, Lockheed Martin, Boeing, GE Aviation, GE Gas Turbines, and others.

To learn more, please visit www.clemson.edu or view this brochure on the Engineering, Computing, and Applied Sciences program

Recruitment & Training

South Carolina has a strong talent pool for businesses seeking to hire educated professionals and skilled laborers. There are multiple training programs for companies with ten or more employees, including services for veterans seeking employment. Additionally, several resources are available, such as ReadySC, Apprenticeship Carolina, Enterprise Zone Retraining Credits, and Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) & SC Works Business Solutions. These programs offer pre-screening, skills assessments, technical and on-the-job training, and referrals for qualified job seekers. The goal is to ensure your company has the workers it needs on day one.

Educational Institutions

Institution	Graduates	Institution	Graduates
Anderson University	986	North Greenville University	497
Arclabs	458	Piedmont Technical College	1,653
Bob Jones University	617	Presbyterian College	275
Clemson University	7,406	Southern Wesleyan University	360
Converse University	324	Spartanburg Community College	1,057
Erskine College	117	Spartanburg Methodist College	261
Furman University	682	Tri-County Technical College	2,449
Greenville Technical College	2,125	University of South Carolina - Union	97
Lander University	672	University of South Carolina - Upstate	1,421
Limestone University	482	Wofford College	421

Source: National Center for Education Statistics; 2021-2022 Completions

Workforce Training and Development

Educational Institution Name	City, State, Zip	Key Manufacturing Programs (not a comprehensive list)
Tri-County Technical College	4 Campuses in Pendleton, Anderson, Easley, and Seneca.	CNC Operations, General Engineering, Mechatronics, Logistics, Production, Manufacturing Operations, Welding, Electrical
Piedmont Technical College	Greenwood, SC 29648 (has multiple satellite campuses)	Engineering Technology, Welding, Mechatronics, Machine Tool Technology
Greenville Technical College	Greenville, SC 29606 (has multiple satellite campuses)	Advanced Manufacturing Technology, Architectural Engineering Technology, CNC & Machine Tool, Mechatronics, Mechanical Engineering Technology, Engineering Design Technology, Electronic Engineering Technology
Greenville Technical College Center for Manufacturing Innovation	Greenville, SC 29607	CNC Operations, Mechatronics
Greenville Technical College Brashier Campus	Greenville, SC 29680	Mechatronics, Welding
Greenville Technical College Barton Campus	Greenville, SC 29607	CNC, Machine Tooling, Mechanical Engineering Technology, Supply Chain Management, Welding
Spartanburg Community College	Spartanburg, SC 29303 (has multiple satellite campuses)	Automated Manufacturing technology, Industrial Electricity, Industrial Electronic Technology, Process Control Technology, Mechatronics, Manufacturing Operations, CNC, Welding
Clemson University	Clemson, SC 29634	Numerous Engineering Programs (Including Automotive, Industrial, Biomedical, Mechanical
USC Upstate	Spartanburg, SC 29303	Engineering Technology Management, Logistics and Supply Chain Management
Ready SC	Columbia, SC 29210	Recruitment and training solutions; As an integral part of the SC Technical College System, readySC™ works together with the 16 technical colleges to prepare South Carolina's workforce to meet the needs of your company.
Greenville County Schools' Career & Technical Education	Greenville, SC 29601 (multiple locations)	Work Based Learning in Industrial, Manufacturing, & Engineering Systems, including Global Logistics and Supply Chain Management, Integrated Production Technology, Machine Tool Technology, Mechatronics Integrated Technologies, Welding Technology
Bonds Career Center	Greer, SC 29650	Machine Tooling, Welding, Mechatronics
Donaldson Career Center	Greenville, SC 29605	Machine Tooling, Welding, Mechatronics
Enoree Career Center	Greenville, SC 29617	Machine Tooling, Welding, Mechatronics
Golden Strip Career Center	Greenville, SC 29607	Machine Tooling, Welding, Mechatronics
Fountain Inn High School	Fountain Inn, SC 29644	CNC, Mechatronics, Integrated Production Technology, Machine Tooling
Greer High School	Greer, SC 29651	Global Logistics and Supply Chain Management

HAVE YOU SEEN AN INFLUX OF WORKERS? WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO ATTRACT NEW WORKERS?

According to data from the United States Census Bureau, 34 people moved to Greenville County each day in 2022. The Upstate SC Region, often used as the labor shed for Greenville County, saw 85 people move to the region each day. Greenville is continuously recognized for its quality of life and is one reason the region has seen an influx in residents. In the last year, Greenville has been rated as one of the Best Places for Young Professionals (Niche, 2022 & 2021), The South's Best Cities on the Rise (Southern Living, 2021), and the Best Small City in the United States (Conde Nast Traveler, 2021). Greenville and the Upstate SC Region are actively attracting new residents through the visitors bureau, VisitGreenvilleSC and their Yeah, That Greenville campaign, as well as new workers through the Upstate SC Alliance's MoveUpstateSC campaign.

WHAT IS THE RETENTION RATE OF WORKERS?

Migration pattern data released by the United States Census Bureau shows 74% of young adults that grew up in Greenville, South Carolina, stayed here for work. Additionally, the average young adult that moved to Greenville, SC for work, moved from an area about 119 miles away. Areas that Greenville, SC is attracting talent from include other areas in South Carolina such as Columbia and Charleston, and metros outside of South Carolina such as Asheville, Atlanta, Charlotte, Detroit, Miami, Philadelphia, Tampa, and Washington DC.

To learn more, please visit www.migrationpatterns.org

EMPLOYERS

Greenville County's diverse economy features several major employers that significantly influence the county's growth and development. These major employers include companies in various manufacturing, healthcare, education, and technology sectors.

Largest Employers

Company	Headcount	Production
Prisma Health*	10,000+	Health Services
Michelin North America*	5,001 - 10,000	Headquarters / R&D / Mfg (radial tires)
Bon Secours St. Francis Health System*	2,501 - 5,000	Health Services
GE Power	1,001 - 2,500	Turbines
Fluor Corporation	1,001 - 2,500	Engineering / Construction Services
SYNNEX Corporation	1,001 - 2,500	Technology Solutions
TD Bank	1,001 - 2,500	Financial Services
Verizon Wireless	1,001 - 2,500	Telecommunications - Call Center
Sealed Air Corp. - Cryovac Division	1,001 - 2,500	Paper Coated and Laminated, Packaging
USC School of Medicine, Greenville	1,001 - 2,500	Four-year medical school

*Multiple locations

Significant Contractions

Greenville, South Carolina has not experienced any significant manufacturing contractions in the last 3 years.

Significant Growth

Company	Type	Production	Jobs	Year
Getronics	Attraction	$1,630,000	500	2019
Global Lending	Expansion	$4,200,000	669	2019
Utility Partners of America	Expansion	$1,100,000	350	2020
DC Blox	Attraction	$200,000,000	5	2020
Fitesa	Expansion	$100,000,000	40	2020
Lockheed Martin	Expansion	$14,000,000	250	2020
Michelin	Expansion	$100,000,000	-	2020
United Community Bank	Expansion	$24,800,000	227	2021
Transcom	Attraction	$5,160,000	450	2021
Thermo King	Attraction	$30,000,000	220	2022
Health Supply US	Attraction	$150,000,000	600	2022
Purpose Financial	Attraction	$2,680,000	332	2022

To view our recent announcements, please visit our Market Conditions page.

Laborforce

Greenville County's laborshed includes the counties of Anderson, Greenville, Laurens, Pickens, and Spartanburg in South Carolina, and Henderson, Polk, and Transylvania in North Carolina. According to the most recent Lightcast data, the labor pool in Greenville County is 709,630 people. The labor pool grew by 48,473 people over the last 5 years and is projected to grow by 45,711 people over the next 5 years.

Unemployment Rate

According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the February 2023 unemployment rate in Greenville County is 3.3% or 8,689 people. In the Greenville-Anderson-Mauldin, MSA, the unemployment rate is 3.4% or 15,245 people.

Wages

Our market has competitive wages and as a right-to-work and employment-at-will state, South Carolina enjoys stable employer-employee relations and one of the country's lowest unionization rates.

According to Lightcast data, the average wage for Project Cranberry Sauce's workforce in Greenville, South Carolina's Labor shed is $36.98 per hour.

The Greenville Area Development Corporation has access to hyper local data on wages that is collected through an annual survey of employers in our region. This data can be made available to the company upon request.

$36.98/HR
Average Earnings

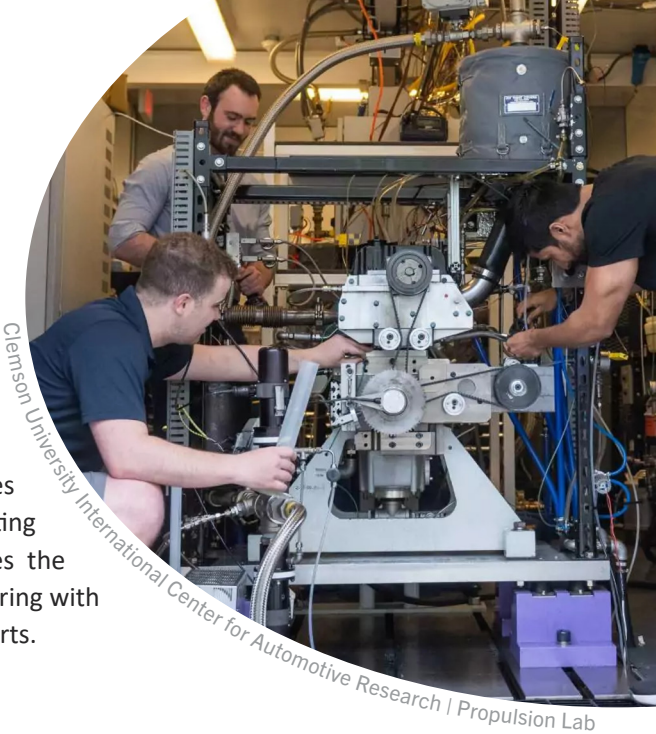

$20.90/HR
25th Percentile Earnings

$30.98/HR
Median Earnings

$46.87/HR
75th Percentile Earnings

SOUTH CAROLINA AUTOMOTIVE COUNCIL

South Carolina Automotive Council is a Council of the South Carolina Manufacturers Alliance (SCMA) connecting South Carolina's automotive industry. Driven by SCMA's automotive members – from Original Equipment Makers to all levels of the supply chain – the SCAC engages on industry relevant topics including trade, government policy, supply chain, quality, workforce and economic development. Our established annual events provide a forum for insightful discussion on trends and issues impacting the industry on a local and global basis. In addition to facilitating the state's network of automotive companies, the SCAC also promotes the continued growth and strengthening of the automotive industry by partnering with state and local organizations in workforce and economic development efforts.

Clemson University International Center for Automotive Research | Propulsion Lab

Recent Automotive Wins

Company	Type	Production	Investment	Jobs	Year
Yanfeng	Attraction	Automotive interiors	$600,000	14	2023
Fuyao Glass America	Attraction	Automotive glass	$34,500,000	121	2022
Dash EV	Attraction	Electric vehicles	-	10	2022
Volvo	Attraction	Machinery for suppliers	$42,600,000	-	2022
Star EV	Attraction	Electric vehicles			2021

Visit South Carolina Manufacturers Alliance

Clemson University International Center for Automotive Research

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Tony Smith

Project Manager

TonySmith@greenvillecounty.org

(864) 467-4975

GoGADC.com